Financial Commitment

St. Francis Christian School knows that parents who choose to enroll their children in SFCS are making a significant financial investment in the academic, social, and spiritual lives of their children. Each member of the faculty and staff at SFCS takes this responsibility and partnership seriously. Your timely payments ensure that SFCS can continue to meet the chief financial obligation of our greatest assets - our faculty and staff.

Tuition Payment Guidelines

- Registration and fees are due at time of enrollment unless arrangements are made with administration
- Payments may be made in 10 monthly installments (September 1 to June 1) over the course of the school year
- All payments should be remitted to the SFCS school office
